

Map & Guide: Patterson Arboretum, University of Saskatchewan

The collection contains approximately 800 species and cultivated varieties of trees, shrubs and vines. Planting began in 1966 and continues today, testing plant adaptability to Zone 2b prairie climate.

The following map shows general locations of selected plant groups. A complete plant list with row number locations is available on the website.

Arboretum Map:

Plant labels:

